Message

Dr D Veerendra Heggade
President.....

With the adaptation of the RUDSETI model by the central government and subsequent increase in the number of RSETIs sponsored by different Banks across the country, keeping them on a uniform platform was a significant task. The Ministry of Rural Development reposed confidence in the sponsors of RUDSETI and advised the sponsors SDME Trust, SyndicateBank and Canara Bank to establish an organization for monitoring and mentoring of RSETIs which resulted in the birth of NAR.

In tune with the accepted responsibility, NAR over the years has been discharging its duty in an effective manner. With the thrust by the Government of India on skill development and standardization of the training norms as per NSQF and CNN, the responsibility of NAR grew further and it is a matter of pride that NAR could meet the expectations of the stakeholders. The strength of NAR as a National Resource Organisation (NRO) is comparable to other similar national level organizations in this line.

The herculean task of coming out with Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) Manual, considering the requirements to be fulfilled by RSETIs in all aspects of its functioning has been successfully completed by NAR and the same has been approved by the Ministry. With the availability of standard reference material with each of the units of RSETIs and the stake holders, the functioning is going to be uniform and standardized. I am also aware of the efforts put in by the RSETIs ably guided by the NAR to align the courses towards NSQF and to meet the common norms notification stipulations.

The tasks ahead for NAR is going to be challenging in respect of Assessment and Certification of trainees at RSETIs and getting the domain skill trainers certified across the country.

I am sure the NAR would continue their efforts to remain as an effective NRO, building the capacities of the field level functionaries in the area of Self employment, Entrepreneurship development and financial literacy.

It is also my desire to see the NAR functioning in its own campus at the earliest.

May lord Manjunatha Swamy bless each one of you!

Foreword

National Academy of RUDSETI (NAR) was established with the purpose of standardizing the training systems for RSETIs and to effectively monitor and mentor the working of the RSETIs across the country. It is heartening to note that the NAR has proved its strength and has met the expectations of the stake holders.

With the emphasis on Skilling India, the RSETIs under the guidance of NAR have carved a niche in the field of Entrepreneurship development and self employment of the Rural Youth. NAR has put in a lot of efforts for effective implementation of the directions of the Ministry of Rural Development and Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship. In fact, RSETI movement has proved itself to be a cost effective and result oriented module in guiding the unemployed youth. NAR has strove hard to come out with the Standard Operating Procedure manual which is akin to the Mantras for all the stake holders of the RSETI movement. It is serving as an instant reference material for all the issues concerned with the establishment and running of the RSETIs and conducting the training programmes.

It has been the collective efforts of all the stake holders to improve the training quality and standard of the RSETIs. Banks also have responded positively towards Ministry's Initiatives. NAR has all along been an effective Anchoring Agency.

I am sure the NAR will continue to put its efforts in proving itself as an effective National Resource Organisation not only for self employment training programmes but also in the field of Financial Literacy and BC/BF trainings.

I am glad that an activity report of NAR is being brought out to document the activities of the year 2021-22. I wish this becomes a reflective document of activities done together and also provides vision about the mission ahead.

My wishes for a successful year ahead in which I hope new benchmarks will be set.

Director General

National Academy of RUDSETI continues to meet its basic objective of Capacity Building, monitoring, mentoring, Assessment and Certification through its three independent verticals.

The role of NAR is assuming more importance year after year in view of the requirements of meeting CNN norms and alignment with NSQF. One of the important requirements under CNN is that the soft skills and hard skills imparted by RSETIs should be by certified trainers. Other aspect of RSETI management is that the Directors managing the affairs of RSETIs are deputed officers of the Bank for a period of 3-5 years only and is not of a permanent nature. Also, the Faculty of RSETIs are engaged on contract and there will be regular changes. In view of this, on an average around 30% of the Directors and Faculty have to be provided with Trainers Training Program every year. And of course, the equal number to be provided with Refresher Training Programme also. In order to meet this requirement regular training programmes are held. Besides this NAR is also been given the responsibility of Training of Master trainers under TMTFL programme. Since, Assessment of all the trainees under TTP is also taken up, which attaches more seriousness to the training programmes.

Besides training programmes arranged, NAR has taken up the additional responsibility of facilitating tool kit distribution to the CRPs by RSETIs. The cost of the tool kits to be provided to the CRPs after the training by RSETIs is being monitored and reimbursed by NAR.

Mission One GP One BC Sakhi is another flagship programme under NRLM for which NAR is the implementing Agency. NAR has to facilitate training of BC sakhi through RSETIs, Coordinate with IIBF for arranging Certification examination for the trained candidates at the RSETI centers. Collecting data on examination results, facilitating issue of IIBF certificates to the candidates through RSETI and submission of the related data to the NRLM/Ministry and reimbursement of the cost of training to the RSETIs is undertaken by the NAR.

NAR is also functioning as resource center for the RSETIs with regard to their requirement of training materials, regular guidance and motivation.

Construction of the own building for the campus was in full swing during the year and the major part of the work was completed as planned and it is hoped that the new campus will be operational in the middle of the next financial year.

ACTIVITY REPORT OF NATIONAL ACADEMY OF RUDSETI

for the year Apr 2021 to Mar 2022

The core responsibility of National Academy of RUDSETI is to conduct Trainers Training Programme(TTP) for the newly joined/recruited Directors and Faculty of RSETIs. With this training, the personnel who have joined the RSETIs afresh shall have a clear understanding of the concept of RSETI and the effective functioning of RSETIs in all aspects from arranging the training, management, pre and post training efforts, including settlement, claiming of reimbursements from sponsoring organisations and reporting. NAR also arranges Refresher Training Programme after completion of 12 months of TTP for the same personnel, to give deeper insight into all the aspects of training and the RSETI functioning. These two training programmes are mandatory for all the Directors and Faculty of the RSETIs and the cost of these programmes are met by the Ministry of Rural Development.

NAR has been recognized as the NRO for Financial Literacy programme of the Ministry and has been entrusted with the responsibility of training the district level RSETI Directors, SRLM officials and the Financial Literacy counselors across India. These Master Trainers, in turn train the community resource persons(CRPs) to enable them to train the SHG women at village level in the Financial Literacy aspects. Besides this, NAR is also coordinating with the RSETIs for supply of training kits to FLCRP, after the training imparted by the RSETIs to enable the CRPs to conduct training programmes at the field level. Funding to RSETIs for supply of Kits is also managed by the NAR.

NAR has been awarded the Project of One GP One BC Sakhi under which funds are released by the MoRD to NAR in advance. NAR has to facilitate arranging of BCBF training to identified SHG women through RSETIs across the country. After the required training, the trained candidates have to undergo certification examination of IIBF. NAR coordinates with RSETIs and IIBF for arranging this examination, with RSETIs as examination centers. A target of creation of a pool of 50000 SHG women as trained BCs is envisaged under the I phase of the Project.

The year 2021-22 was one of the difficult year for NAR due to Covid 19 continued pandemic. However Trainings are arranged during major part of the year. All out efforts have been made to support the RSETIs.

Trainers Training Programme (TTP)

The Directors and Faculty of RSETIs have to assume the role of Motivators, trainers and facilitators to promote Entrepreneurship besides taking care of all administrative responsibilities and other activities of the Institute. NAR was established with the basic objective of capacity building of the personnel of the RSETIs and to standardize the functioning of RSETIs run by different sponsor Banks. RSETIs are the bank managed institutes with the head of the unit being the Director, an officer on deputation by the sponsoring Banks for a period of 3-5 years. Besides, these they are also to be made aware of the standard operating procedures, CNN norms, NSQF issues, Assessment and certification etc., Hence TTP acts as an induction programme for the Directors and the newly recruited Faculty.
